Press Release

Wednesday, July 01, 2009

Contact: Bernard Kingsley

Subject: First sponsor

Anagon Corporation has committed to be a silver sponsor of the third annual Family Fun Day conducted by Greater Marlboro Programs Incorporated (GMPI). According to Bernard Kingsley, GMPI's Director of Development, Anagon is the first company to agree to co-sponsor the 2009 fundraising program which will be held on Sunday, Sept. 13. For information the public is directed to the website www.gmpinc.org

Other corporate sponsors are needed to support GMPI's services. GMPI's mission is to promote the personal growth, dignity and acceptance of people with developmental disabilities in the Metro-West area.

Located in Hudson, Anagon Corporation is engineering services firm focused on providing world class automatic test and test information solutions to high technology clients. Anagon has a strong history of involvement in programs benefitting the local community."
