

community news

Area program hosts first Family and Friends Barbecue

Koo Koo the clown gives some juggling lessons.

Urban Legend band members pose with Koo Koo the clown and a local fan: (l to r) Bobby O'Brien, Koo Koo, Patrick Callahan, Al Bonarsoro and Fred Frerrarini.

Marlborough - Jeanne Quinn and her nephew Danny Trainer enjoy an afternoon of arts and crafts activities at the first Friends and Family Barbecue hosted by the Greater Marlborough Program Inc. (GMPI) Sept. 9. The event, held at the Marlborough Fish & Game, also included live music by Urban Legend, a bouncy castle, an all-you-can-eat barbecue and a clown.

PHOTOS/ANGELA GREINER

GMPI CELEBRATES...

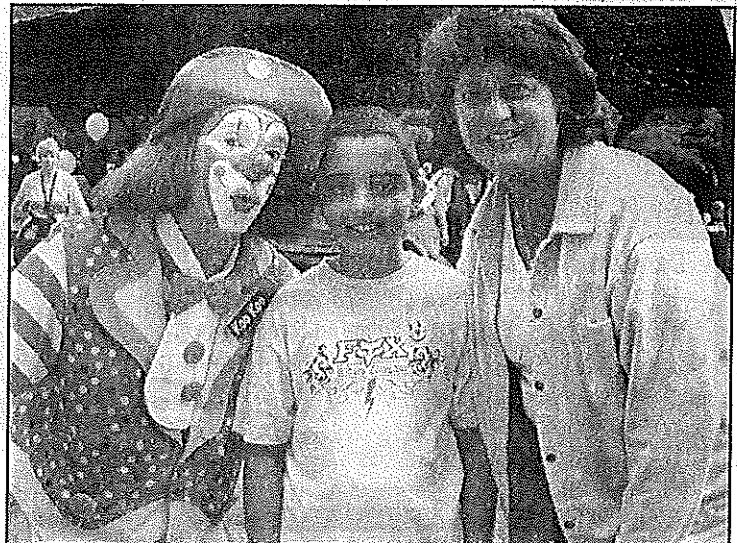

STAFF PHOTOS BY MARY WENZEL

The Three Stooges, Moe, Larry and Curly, "flew in" from California to join local folks at the Greater Marlboro Programs Inc. 1st Annual Friends & Family Outing on Sept. 9 at the Marlborough Fish and Game. In photo, from left, are Jo Achilles, member of the GMPI board of directors; Jeff Tucker, president of the GMPI board of directors; Dave Domke, treasurer of the GMPI board of directors; Moe Howard, Curly Howard, Larry Fine; Carol Manne, executive director for Greater Marlboro Programs Inc.; and Debra Aharonian, member of the GMPI board of directors.

Enjoying the live music and other activities at the Greater Marlboro Programs Inc. Friends and Family event were, from left, Michael Flynn, GMPI volunteer; Marlborough City Councilor Maura Navin Webster, Brian Flint and Marlborough Mayor Nancy Stevens.

The festivities featured an all you can eat barbecue and music by the Urban Legend Band. There was face painting, a moonwalk, games and more. Also Koo Koo the clown was on hand to entertain. In photo, Koo Koo joins Alex Santos and Chris Mason, editor of the GMPI newsletter.