Subject: Development Director Appointed

Carol Manne, President & CEO of Greater Marlboro Programs, Inc. has announced the appointment of Bernard R. Kingsley as Director of Development for the organization. In that role, Kingsley will be responsible to fundraising and will be involved in corporate communications.

Kingsley has previously worked in development for several health organizations including Durham Regional Hospital in North Carolina and Harrington Memorial Hospital in Massachusetts. He is an adjunct faculty member of Becker College and has taught finance and market research. He was educated at the Ohio University where he obtained an M.B.A. degree.

In announcing the appointment, Manne indicated that Greater Marlboro Programs, Inc. has recently completed its strategic planning process. The mission of the organization is "To promote the personal growth, dignity and acceptance of people with developmental disabilities in the Metro-West area."

Jeffrey Tucker, Chairman of the Board for Greater Marlboro Programs and a Vice President with The Village Bank has led the board in its long range plan and indicated that the addition of a Development Director position was identified as a need during the planning process. He stated that "We are very excited to have Bernard join Greater Marlborough Programs, Inc. His efforts will benefit GMPI and the individuals we serve for many years to come."
