Subject: Daniel Morris appointed to Employment Coordinator Position

Greater Marlboro Programs Inc. is very pleased to announce that Daniel M. Morris has accepted the new position of Employment Coordinator. Mr. Morris has over ten years of progressive experience in providing social, vocational and clinical support to people with disabilities. He most recently worked as a case manager at the San Diego Regional Center in San Diego, California.

Mr. Morris is a licensed social worker who obtained his degree in social work from Boston University. Maureen O'Doherty, Human Resource Coordinator of Greater Marlboro Programs states that "Daniel Morris brings a passion for making a positive difference in people's lives and enhancing quality of life."

Mr. Morris is relocating from California to the Westborough, MA area because this is where his family resides. Prior to moving to California, he had worked at Community Health Link and Lutheran Community Center, both in Worcester, MA. Carol Manne, President and C.E.O. of Greater Marlboro Programs, announced that the appointment becomes effective on Monday, July 6, 2009.
