Subject: Cheryl A. Juaire appointed to Employment Coordinator Position

Greater Marlboro Programs Inc. is very pleased to announce that Cheryl A. Juaire has accepted the position of Employment Coordinator. Among other duties, she will coordinate the new Intel learning laboratory.

Maureen O'Doherty, Human Resource Coordinator of Greater Marlboro Programs, states that "Cheryl Juaire brings with her a passion for making a positive difference in people's lives. She has demonstrated her commitment to our community in numerous ways".

Juaire previously worked for the Marlborough School System in the Post Grad Program for the developmentally disabled. She placed students in jobs, did job coaching with the students, and provided training within the classroom.

She has also worked in the private sector as a Training Coordinator and certified trainer for the Olive Garden in Marlboro, implementing a training program for new hires. She demonstrated leadership skills while working at the Embassy Suites Hotel).

Cheryl Juaire has been active in the local community. She served on the State Democratic Committee, as warden at the polls for City elections and is a member of the Marlborough Lion's Club. She was a committee member on the Relay For Life which raised over $100,000 and participates in the Holiday Helper program. She is married to Ward 4 City Councilor Peter Juaire.

Carol Manne, President and C.E.O. of Greater Marlboro Programs, announced that the appointment became effective on Monday, August 17, 2009.
